The Student Mentor Project Scholarship Annual Scholarship Form Guidelines

The Student Mentor Project (TSMP) is pleased to offer scholarships to UC Berkeley returning sophomores who meet the listed requirements, and; are willing to commit to and perform 3 years of mentoring at-risk, 4th-8th grade youth. TSMP was founded in 2015 with the belief that a long-term, positive mentor in the lives of these at-risk youth can ultimately result in a long-term reduction in homelessness, incarceration and social service/health care usage which is currently costing the people of the State of California billions of dollars every year! The TSMP Scholarship was developed with the dual purpose of making college education more affordable, and increasing the number of mentors available to the many after school mentoring organizations in the community.

1. TSMP will award 3-year, $6,000 scholarships to be paid as follows:
 - a. 1st and 2nd semester, $500 each.
 - b. 3rd and 4th semester, $1,000 each.
 - c. 5th and 6th semester, $1,500 each.
2. These scholarships will be awarded and paid at the beginning of each semester to UC Berkeley students who commit to and perform 3 years of mentoring at TSMP listed mentoring organizations, and who meet all the requirements set forth by the mentoring organizations and TSMP.
3. The applicant must be a resident of California at the time of application and must be enrolled as a returning sophomore at UC Berkeley.
